Ceremony Policies

To ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all, please adhere to the following policies while in Mariucci Arena:

- The University honors free speech and the expression rights of our community members. However, demonstrations or disruptive activities are not permitted inside the venue during this event, to ensure access and enjoyment for all. Commencement events are milestone celebrations for graduating students and their families, and our goal is to ensure students can be properly celebrated for their achievements and that they and their families have a safe and accessible experience. Community members who wish to engage in expressive activity may do so outside of the venue.
- Due to fire regulations, arena aisles must be kept clear. Camera and video equipment, baby carriers, and strollers are not allowed in the aisles.
- For liability reasons, no one will be allowed on the stage following the commencement ceremony.
- Smoking is not permitted in this or any other University building.

May 10, 2024

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and students of the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Minnesota, let me first and foremost say CONGRATULATIONS! We are here today to celebrate your major achievement with your families, friends, and fellow students.

As your journey continues—here in Minnesota, across the nation, or around the globe—you will surely impact others as they in turn will impact you. I wish for you amazing opportunities, great friendships, and a future of possibilities.

As you go forth in your chosen fields, remember learning is a lifelong opportunity. I hope you will apply what you have discovered during your time here with us and also stay open to growing from everyone and everything in the days and years to come. It is this continuous process of discovery and growth that allows us to best use our gifts to improve lives and to appreciate fully the greatest gift of all—the gift of learning.

CEHD is proud of you. I am particularly excited to see how you make a difference as a member of CEHD alumni. And don't consider this a farewell. We look forward to continuing our relationship with you as a lifelong member of CEHD and the University of Minnesota community. Please stay in touch and connect with us through social media and future college events.

Best wishes for the future,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael C. Rodriguez". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, stylized flourish at the end of the name.

Michael C. Rodriguez
Dean and Campbell Leadership Chair

Biographical Information

Michael C. Rodriguez

Michael C. Rodriguez, PhD, is dean of the College of Education and Human Development and a professor of educational measurement and assessment. He holds the Campbell Leadership Chair with a focus on education equity and is a member of the University's Academy of Distinguished Teachers. He directs the MN Youth Development Research Group that explores the role of the social and cultural contexts of learning and positive youth development through the measurement of social and emotional learning. He currently chairs the Technical Advisory Group of the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards and is a member of the Design and Analysis Committee of the National Assessment of Educational Progress.

He is the recipient of the Albert J. Harris Research Award from the International Literacy Association. Perhaps most importantly, he is a fifth-generation Minnesotan and a first-generation college graduate.

Mike O. Kenya

Mike Kenya serves as a consulting analyst for Accenture PLC in Minneapolis. Kenya was born in Nairobi, Kenya, and immigrated to Minnesota in 2002. As a student at the University of Minnesota Duluth (UMD), Kenya served two terms as student body president and served on many committees and task forces. He also held roles including resident advisor and student representative to the Board of Regents. In 2019, Kenya received the Sieur du Lhut Award, the highest award given to a UMD student for service to the campus and community. Kenya received a bachelor of business administration in management information systems from the Labovitz School of Business and Economics in 2019.

John Leonard

John Leonard joined the University of Minnesota band faculty in the fall of 2021 after completing his DMA in wind conducting at the University of Kansas. In 2018 he was the interim assistant director of bands, and director of the Bronco Marching Band at Western Michigan University. Previously, Leonard was the assistant director of bands at Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts, and worked as an adjunct lecturer at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst teaching music arranging techniques as well as leading the UMass "Hoop" Band and assisting with the Minuteman Marching Band. A prolific arranger, Leonard writes music for many university marching bands, as well as working on new arrangements and transcriptions for wind band. In the summers, he teaches at the George N. Parks Drum Major Academy where he is both a lead clinician as well as the staff manager for the company.

Special Announcements

The University of Minnesota Twin Cities is built within the traditional homelands of the Dakota people. It is important to acknowledge the peoples on whose land we live, learn, and work as we seek to improve and strengthen our relations with our Tribal Nations. We also acknowledge that words are not enough. We must ensure that our institution provides support, resources, and programs that increase access to all aspects of higher education for our American Indian students, staff, faculty, and community members.

The Minnesota Tribal Nations Plaza is located on the main western entrance to Huntington Bank Stadium, across from 3M Arena at Mariucci. The plaza includes eleven, 18-foot tall sky markers, each of which incorporates information about one of Minnesota's eleven Tribal Nations.

Additional Programs

Additional copies of this program may be available from the Office of the Dean, College of Education and Human Development, 104 Burton Hall, 178 Pillsbury Drive S.E., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455; 612-626-9252.
